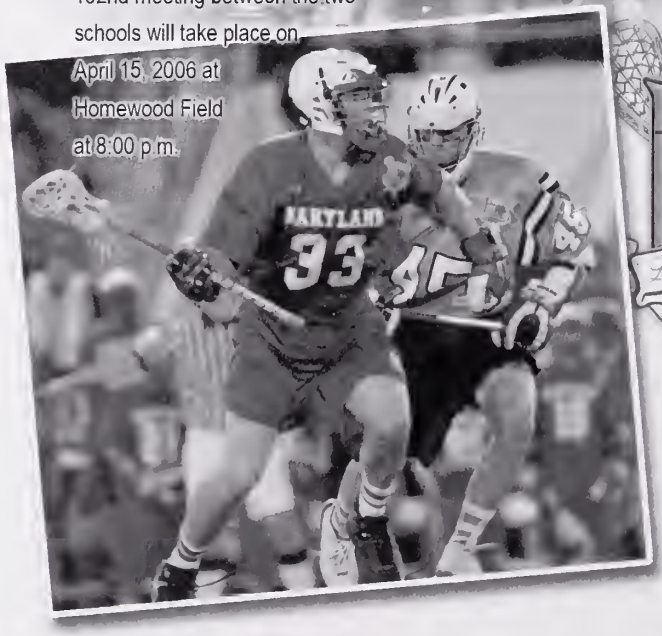
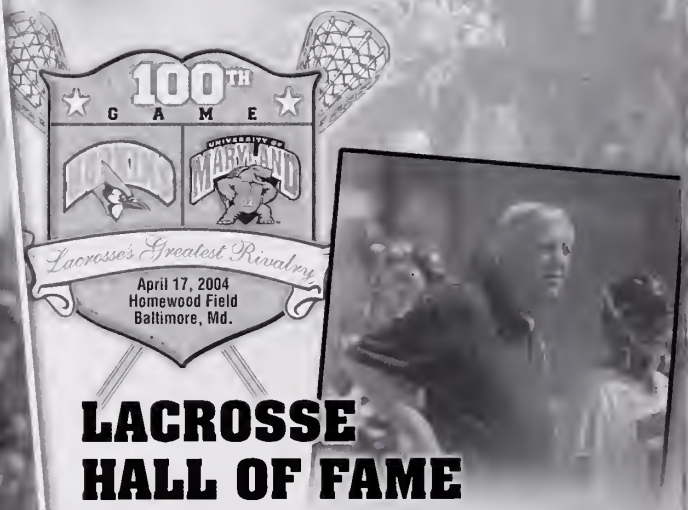
PLAYING FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Terps have won two NCAA titles (1973 and 1975) and have played in seven more title games, most recently in 1998. Maryland has appeared in 14 of the last 16 NCAA tournaments and have reached at least the quarterfinals in its last nine appearances. The Terrapins have also won 25 ACC titles, including the 2004 and 2005 championships.

THE RIVALRY

The most storied rivalry in all of college lacrosse is Maryland-Johns Hopkins. The 102nd meeting between the two schools will take place on April 15, 2006 at Homewood Field at 8:00 p.m.





LACROSSE HALL OF FAME

Thirty former Maryland players and coaches have been elected to the National Lacrosse Hall of Fame. The latest Terp to be inducted was former coach Dick Edell in 2004.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Maryland men's lacrosse placed 14 student-athletes on the 2004-05 ACC honor roll (3.0 or better GPA for both semesters). In addition to that, 2005 graduate Ian Healy was a Phi Beta Kappa honoree, just the third Terrapin student-athlete in any sport to be inducted into the nation's oldest and largest academic society.

LACROSSE

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Being a Terp means being in the spotlight of the lacrosse world. Since 1946, 21 Maryland men's lacrosse players have won national awards, including back-to-back National Defensive Player of the Year award winners Michael Howley (right) in 2003 and Lee Zink (far right) in 2004.

In addition to regularly appearing on national television during its season, Maryland lacrosse also receives extensive media coverage from Inside Lacrosse, Lacrosse Magazine, the Baltime Sun, Washington Post and Washington Times.

MARYLAND HAS BEEN TO TWO FINAL FOURS AND WON TWO ACC TOURNAMENT TITLES IN COACH DAVE COTTLE'S FOUR SEASONS IN COLLEGE PARK.

THE FLAG

Prior to every game, Maryland strength and conditioning coach Marc Heineke leads the Terps out on to the field.

SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS GUNNING FOR FIRST NCAA TITLE SINCE 1975.

The pieces look to all be in place for the Maryland men's lacrosse team to not only make a return trip to Philadelphia on Memorial Day weekend, but to take the next step and challenge for the NCAA Championship. But, while the pieces may be there, the Terps' road to Philly is filled with challenges from both inside and outside the Terrapin program.

Entering last season Maryland was faced with rebuilding its entire starting defense and filling in some important holes on the offensive end. This year the Terps return nine of 10 starters, top four short-stick defensive midfielders, top three long poles, top four attackmen, and two of their first line midfielders.

"Last year, every starter on defense was a first year starter and this year they will be second year starters, so that's going to help," said head coach Dave Cottle. "At attack we've got guys with experience and I think we've got two pretty good midfielders on our first midfield. We need to sort out not only who is going to be the third person on the first midfield, but find out who is going to be on our second and third midfield lines. We have a lot of guys, but no one has really jumped out to the forefront yet. That's what we're going to have to figure out in the preseason.

"Our goal remains to win the national championship, but we know that there is a lot of work to do for us to be in position to accomplish that goal."

ATTACK

Who's Who?: Maryland's corps of attackmen starts with U.S. National Team member Joe Walters, but the Terps return their top four attackmen from 2005. Walters will receive the lion's share of attention from opposing defenses, but All-America candidate Xander Ritz can make opponents pay if too much attention is given to Walters.

Walters' accomplishments are well documented and he is on the verge of becoming Maryland's all-time leader in goals and points, while Ritz has been one of college lacrosse's best kept secrets. He was tied for second on the team last year with 33 points and enters the 2006 season tied for fifth among active Division I players with 58 career assists.

The third starter will likely be sophomore Max Ritz, who started 11 games in 2005 and scored the game-winning goal in overtime to beat Virginia in the ACC Semifinals. According to Cottle, this could be a breakthrough season for Max Ritz and that he has the potential to be a 20-goal scorer.

Junior Mike Phipps started the first eight games for Maryland in 2005, but missed the remainder of the season with a leg injury. Phipps is healthy now and adds yet another passing and scoring threat to the Terp attack. Before the injury he scored eight goals and assisted on six others.

Wildcard: Josh Ardossi's long-awaited arrival in College Park has created quite a buzz in the college lacrosse world, but it's uncertain how the talented Australian will fit into Coach Cottle's plans. But one thing that is certain is that Ardossi gives Maryland another offensive weapon that opponents will have to account for. He is a member of Australia's 2006 National Team and is known for having a quick and powerful shot, as well as being a precise passer.

In the Mix: Junior Jay Feeley has been moved to attack after spending his first three years in the program in the midfield. Jon Beard, the 2005 NJCAA Player of the Year, gives Maryland another scoring threat. Freshman Danny Gallagher, a "Blue Chip" recruit by Inside Lacrosse, could compete for playing time. Scott Tompkins, another freshman, could see time as he picks up the offense.

MIDFIELD

Who's Who?: The Terps return first team All-American Bill McGlone and honorable mention All-American Brendan Healy to their first midfield line, but the third member of that unit likely won't be known until the end of preseason practice.

McGlone, one of the top midfielders in the country, can attack a defense as either a spot-up shooter or dodging and firing a shot on the run. He was second on the team with 26 goals in 2005 despite being hampered with a shoulder injury much of the season. That injury is fully healed and McGlone is primed for another All-America campaign in 2006.

Healy struggled with his shot last season, but still finished with 20 goals. He has worked harder than ever in the off-season to improve his shooting and will be a big factor in whatever success the Terps enjoy in 2006.

The second unit will likely be headed up by senior Michael Hartofilis, who played most of last year on the second line. A powerful shooter, Hartofilis will be expected to improved his 2005 production of four goals and three assists.

Will Dalton is an intriguing candidate for the second or third lines. The 6-5, 245 lbs., sophomore has worked to improve his understanding of Cottle's offensive schemes and would present match-up problems for most defenders and . Dalton finished the 2005 season on the third midfield line and is getting the opportunity to earn a spot on the second unit this spring.

Wildcards: Patrick Howell has been moved to the midfield full-time after splitting time between midfield and attack the last two years. The junior responded to the move by completely dedicating himself during off-season conditioning. Howell only saw action in three games last year, but has worked his way into a strong contender for a spot on the second or third midfield units.

Thomas Alford has been used primarily as a face-off man during his first two seasons, but could work his way into a more prominent role in the midfield this season. He is another Terp who worked hard in the off-season on his conditioning to make himself into a better player.

Chris Feifs has all of the physical skills to be an impact player in college lacrosse, but needs to put everything together in order to earn a spot on one of the midfield lines. "We would be a much better team if Chris plays up to his potential," said Cottle.

Brent Hargest is an intelligent player who is willing to do the little things to make the team better. The senior is in the competition for a spot on the second or third lines.

In The Mix: Drew Evans saw some time on the second and third midfield lines last year and is competing for playing time in the preseason. Dan Groot is an exciting freshman who could compete for playing time as he gains more experience. Will Harrington, Tom Levesque, Rob Morrison and Nick Ward are all freshmen that will be factors for the Terps in the future.

DEF. MIDFIELD: SHORT STICKS

Who's Who?: Maryland returns its top four short-sticks making the position one of the team's strongest and deepest spots, according to Cottle.

Jimmy Borell could be the best all-around athlete on the Maryland team and began last season on the second midfield line. His move to the defensive midfield coincided with the team's resurgence following its 5-5 start. According to Cottle, Borell has the potential to be a "Paul Gillette-type" player, referencing the All-American defensive midfielder who was the team's 2004 MVP.

FEAR THE TURTLE
2006 MARYLAND MEN'S LACROSSE

Jeff Reynolds enters the preseason as one of the team's top two short-sticks, along with Borell. One of the team's best athletes, Reynolds worked his way into the rotation as a freshman in 2005 and is poised for a breakthrough season this year.

Ryan Lang returns to the defensive midfield after finishing the 2005 season on the second midfield unit. The senior captain could also see time on offense and gives the Terps another option in the midfield.

Travis Holmes played in all 17 games in 2005 and is arguably the toughest player on the Terrapin roster. A former state high school wrestling champion, his willingness to get physical with opponents gives Maryland a nice complement to the athletic Borell and Reynolds.

In The Mix: Junior Paul Andrews is a tough, intelligent player who could challenge for playing time. Now in his third year in the program, Andrews has a good feel for the defensive schemes. Spencer McAllister, a redshirt freshman who is coming back from knee surgery, could challenge for playing time as the season progresses.

DEF. MIDFIELD: LONG POLES

Who's Who?: Ryan Clarke returns as the Terps' primary long pole. The junior improved every game last year and was fourth on the team with 38 groundballs. Clarke's play this season could be a big factor in how far the Terps play into May.

Sophomore Charlie Wiggins, a 2003 high school All-American, returns as the back-up long pole and face-off wingman. Wiggins' athleticism give the Terps additional flexibility in their defensive zone.

Sean Sullivan moves back to playing the long pole position after playing close defense in 2005. The junior started the first six games last season before breaking his hand in the Dartmouth game.

Wildcard: One of the best athletes on the Terrapin team could be goalie Jason Carter. With Harry Alford entrenched as the starter in goal and senior Teddy Murphy as the back-up, the Maryland coaches have been playing Carter at long pole in the preseason in order to take advantage of his athleticism.

In the Mix: Sophomore Matt Rankin had an impressive fall and has continued to improve during the preseason. He could compete for playing time as the season progresses. Freshmen Chris Rhine and Kevin Slafkosky will also have the opportunity to compete for playing time.

CLOSE DEFENSE

Who's Who?: Entering last season Maryland did not have a defender with one career start. This season the Terps boast three close defenders, Steve Whittenberg, Ray Megill and Joe Cinosky, who combined to make 35 starts in 2005. Individually, each brings a different strength to the table, but together they combine to play tremendous team defense.

Whittenberg, a third team All-American in 2005, is regarded as one of the best on-ball defenders in the country. During the off-season the junior worked hard on his conditioning and footwork to be a more complete defender.

Megill, a 2005 honorable mention All-American, is among the best all-around athletes on the team. He was hampered by an ankle injury at the start of last year, but worked his way into the starting line-up in the seventh game of the season.

Cinosky started Maryland's last eight games in 2005 and showed the ability that made him a 2004 high school All-American. The biggest of the Terrapin defenders at 6-3, 225, he will be counted on for his physical presence and his ability to wear down opponents. Cinosky did not compete during the fall season in order to concentrate on academics.

Sophomore Zach Hinton showed remarkable improvement during the off-season and earned the starting nod in the fall scrimmages. He will be one of the Terps' top reserves, but will need to continue to improve as the season progresses.

Wildcard: Freshman Anthony Costanzo is a towering defender at 6-7, 210, and possesses the athleticism to compete for playing time this season. If he can pick up the defensive schemes and adapt to the pace of Division I lacrosse, Costanzo could be a factor toward the end of the season.

MARYLAND'S RETURNERS ...

Scored 83% of its goals in 2005
Tallied 78% of its assists in 2005
Took 86% of its shots in 2005
Picked up 91% of its groundballs in 2005
Made 100% of its saves in 2005

In the Mix: Scott Slosson played primarily on the Terps' man-down unit during the 2004 and 2005 seasons and should continue in that role this year. The senior could also see time as a long pole as well. A pair of juniors have also been impressive during the preseason and will give Maryland a lot of depth. Ryne Adolph and Jacob Baxter have each worked with the first team defense in preseason drills and could push for playing time as the season wears on. Freshman Mike Griswold is an imposing 6-4, 230, and could challenge for time as he improves his understanding of defense.

GOALIE

Who's Who?: In his first year as a starter Harry Alford turned in some amazing performances, including a 25-save effort against Georgetown in his first career start. He also endured some growing pains, but enters the 2006 season with a year of starting experience under his belt and is a viable candidate for the Kelly Award.

"In his first year as a starter Harry had some really good games," said Cottle. "I think what you see in most goalies in their second year is that they become more consistent and I think that's what we'll see from Harry this year."

Wildcard: Jason Carter is seeing time at long pole, but is a natural goalie. The Maryland coaches will make sure he's ready if he has to see time between the pipes this season.

In the Mix: Backing-up Alford will be senior Teddy Murphy, who worked hard in the fall to improve himself as a player and will be ready to step in should anything happen to Alford.

FACE-OFFS

Who's Who?: Coach Cottle identified face-offs as one of the primary areas that needs to improve if Maryland wants to have a shot at winning its first NCAA title since 1975.

David Tamberrino returns as the Terps' primary face-off man. The senior won 55% of his face-offs in 2005 and led the team with 55 groundballs.

Dalton had flashes at the "X" as a freshman in 2005, including winning seven of 10 face-offs vs. Duke in the ACC Tournament final. His size can present match-up problems for some opponents, but he has worked to make himself a more well-rounded face-off man.

Wildcard: Reynolds saw a lot of time on face-offs in 2005, but it was on the wing. This season the sophomore could take some draws for the Terps after some impressive performances in the fall.

HEAD COACH DAVE COTTLE

FIFTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • SALISBURY '78

Dave Cottle, the third winningest active coach in lacrosse, begins his fifth season at the helm of the Maryland lacrosse program in 2005. He was named the eighth coach in the storied history of Maryland lacrosse on Sept. 26, 2001, after a sensational 19-year stint as the head coach at Loyola College in Baltimore.

Cottle, 50, took the reins from the ACC's all-time winningest coach, Dick Edell, who retired on Sept. 3, 2001 after 18 years with the Terps.

He enters the 2006 season as the third winningest active coach in the sport of lacrosse, winning 72.2 percent of his games for a 226-87 record. He picked up his 225th career victory in the Terps' 14-10 win over Penn State in the first round of the 2005 NCAA Tournament on May 14, 2005.

Last season, he directed Maryland to its ninth trip to the NCAA Semifinals and its second straight ACC tournament championship. The Terps ended the season with an overall record of 11-6, but finished the season winning six of their last seven games. Six Maryland players were named postseason All-Americans, including midfielder Bill McGlone, who was a first team selection. Cottle's program also earned another honor in June of 2005 when attackman Joe Walters was named to the 2006 U.S. National Team, the only college player to be selected to the 23-man roster.

Cottle guided the 2004 Terps to a 13-3 record and their first ACC championship since 1998. Maryland finished the season ranked No. 3 in the USILA poll and made it to the quarterfinals of the NCAA tournament. Eight Terrapin players earned All-America honors, including three first team honorees, and Lee Zink was named National Defenseman of the Year, marking the second straight season a Terp earned that honor.

In 2003 he led Maryland back to the NCAA Semifinals for the fourth time in nine years, but the first since 1998. The Terps had a stellar season finishing ranked No. 3 in the nation after being ranked in the top seven all season. Maryland piled numerous accolades as they had eight USILA All-Americans including first-team honoree and National Defenseman of the Year Michael Howley.

The Terps posted a 12-4 record in 2003 and gave Cottle his third trip to the national semifinals. He led the Greyhounds to two national semifinal appearances including an appearance in the 1990 championship game.

The backbone of Cottle's success has been his emphasis on a strong work ethic, intelligent recruiting, attention to detail, and a creative approach to the game. He also is a true believer in the concept of "student-athlete." In each of the last four years, his team's graduation rate has been 89 percent or higher. Six of Cottle's Terrapin players earned USILA Scholar All-America honors, including 2005 graduate Ian Healy, who became just the third Maryland student-athlete to be inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the nations oldest and most prestigious academic society.

He led his Loyola teams to top-10 finishes in each his 14 seasons. The Greyhounds finished with a winning record the final 18 years of his tenure, dating to 1984. Loyola also played in 14 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, entering the 1998 and 1999 tournaments as the No. 1 seed.

A Baltimore native, Cottle took over a struggling Greyhound program in 1983. Since posting a first-year record of 5-9, his only losing season, Cottle's Loyola teams reeled off 18 consecutive winning seasons. The 1998 team's 13-2 campaign, which ended with a berth in the NCAA semifinals, saw Loyola reach a No. 1 national ranking, and the school's first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1988 the Greyhounds began their current run of 14 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Loyola advanced to the national championship game in 1990, and it has made 10 NCAA quarterfinal appearances. In fact, Loyola has advanced to at least the national quarterfinals in seven of the past eight seasons.

The 1990 team, a potent mix of seasoned veterans and talented underclassmen, marched all the way to the NCAA championship game after making the school's first NCAA semifinal appearance. In the semifinals the Greyhounds staged an incredible comeback to beat Yale, 14-13, in overtime and advanced to the title contest against two-time defending champion Syracuse. The Orangemen ended Loyola's quest for the national title, but the Greyhounds' 1990 season always will be remembered.

In 1994 Cottle guided the Greyhounds to one of their best seasons ever. Loyola finished 11-2, recording wins against four teams that participated in the NCAA Tournament. The Greyhounds earned the nation's No. 1 ranking for only the second time in the program's history during that memorable campaign. Loyola concluded the regular season with a 17-15 victory over Johns Hopkins, the program's first victory ever against the Blue Jays. Ranked third in the final USILA poll, the Greyhounds earned a first-round bye into the NCAA Tournament before dropping a 14-13 overtime decision to Brown in the NCAA quarterfinals.

Cottle also guided his 1988 and 1989 teams to the postseason. The 1988 squad finished with a 12-2 record, earning Loyola's first NCAA Division I tournament berth. Loyola defeated Air Force for its first NCAA postseason victory before losing to Penn in an exciting quarterfinal. The Greyhounds concluded the campaign ranked fifth in the nation, and Cottle earned USILA Coach-of-the-Year honors, becoming the first coach in Loyola athletic history to receive a national award. Cottle was selected to coach the South team in the 1988 North-South All-Star Game.

The 1989 Greyhounds became the only Loyola lacrosse team to complete an undefeated regular season. The Greyhounds beat four nationally ranked teams en route to a perfect 10-0 mark. Loyola was ranked third in the final poll, behind eventual national champion Syracuse and Johns Hopkins. A quarterfinal loss to North Carolina ended Loyola's season, but the Greyhounds captured the attention of the lacrosse world with their best record ever.

Cottle came to Loyola in 1982 after leading Severn School to a 26-9 record and consecutive Maryland Scholastic Association championships. Prior to his success at Severn, Cottle served for two years as a graduate assistant coach, assistant varsity lacrosse coach and physical education instructor at his alma mater, Salisbury State University.

One of the finest players in Salisbury State history, Cottle was enshrined into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989. During his career he re-wrote the NCAA record book, while earning All-America honors three times. He still holds many places in the Salisbury State record book, and was just the second player in collegiate lacrosse history to score over 100 points in a single season. The nation's leading scorer in 1975, he served as captain of the South team in the North-South All-Star Game.

Cottle received his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1978 from Salisbury.

He was an assistant coach for Team USA 1994, which won the world championship in Manchester, England. Cottle has addressed many lacrosse gatherings across the country, including the USILA Coaches' Convention, and he serves as a member of the All-America Selection Committee. In February of 1998 he was inducted into the Baltimore Chapter of the Lacrosse Foundation's Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Baltimore's Northern High School, Cottle lives with his wife, Lynn, daughters, Taylor and Tory, and son, Sean, in Edgewater, Md.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING:

"We believe that Coach Cottle will lead Maryland to its next national championship in men's lacrosse. We appreciated hearing from a number of the former players who spoke highly about their experience of playing under Coach Cottle. We look forward to the future of our program under his direction."

– Deborah A. Yow, Maryland Athletics Director

"Dave did a wonderful job with the Loyola team for years. We scrimmaged them for years and it was actually so spirited that we dropped it because it was almost like playing another regular season game."

– Dick Edell, former Maryland head coach

"Dave Cottle has been a close friend and mentor for 20 years now. The University of Maryland is fortunate to have the premier offensive mind in the game as its head coach. He is not only a tremendous coach but also a person of the highest character who will bring out the best in his players."

– Bill Tierney, Princeton head coach

"There's not another coach in the country that I respect more, on and off the field, than Dave Cottle. Maryland has not only made a great selection, but it has made the right selection."

– Tony Seaman, Towson head coach

"Dave Cottle is a very special person. As good as he is as a lacrosse coach, he's an even better person. What he has done at Loyola in almost 20 years is unsurpassed in college lacrosse. He's an extraordinary coach."

– Joe Boylan, Loyola Director of Athletics

"As an alum and former Terrapin lacrosse player, I'm excited that Maryland hired the very best candidate available. I'm confident that Dave Cottle will continue the great Maryland lacrosse tradition and bring home some national championships."

– John Lamon, former All-ACC lacrosse player at Maryland and past Terrapin Club President

DAVE SLAFKOSKY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR • 23RD SEASON AT MARYLAND
JOHNS HOPKINS '74

Assistant coach Dave Slafkosky continues his association with the Maryland lacrosse program as he enters his 23rd season with the Terps this spring. This season will be the fifth straight Slafkosky has worked with Dave Cottle after the previous 18 with his best friend, coach Dick Edell, who retired in September 2001.

Slafkosky and Edell celebrated their 25th year together in 2001 in leading the Terps to a No. 1 ranking at midseason. The duo was also featured on the cover of Inside Lacrosse magazine. Edell and Slafkosky's relationship began when the two coached together at Army from 1977-1983. When Edell came to Maryland, his only request was that "Coach Slaf" join him. Granting Edell's only request was a critical decision that ensured unprecedented success for the program. Slafkosky has continued to serve admirably under Cottle for the past four years.

When Cottle came aboard as head coach in 2002, Slafkosky returned to the defensive side of the game as defensive coordinator after serving as offensive coordinator in 2001.

Last season saw Slafkosky mold an entirely new defensive unit into a group that helped lead Maryland to the 2005 NCAA Final Four. Junior defenseman Steve Whittenberg was named a third team All-American, while goalie Harry Alford and defenseman Ray Megill were honorable mention selections.

The 2004 season marked the second straight season that the Terp defense produced the National Defenseman of the Year in Lee Zink. Maryland's defense also produced first team All-Americans Chris Passavia and third team member Paul Gilllette. Goalie Tim McGinnis and defenseman Dave Wagner were honorable mention selections.

The 2003 season featured the Terps' All-American defense led by National Defenseman of the Year Michael Howley (first team) along with second teammer Chris Passavia and third team members Lee Zink and goalie Danny McCormick. The Terps were among the nation's leaders in defense all season, allowing just 7.25 goals per game.

The Terps returned to the NCAA Semifinals for the fourth time in nine years and seventh in Slafkosky's 20 years at Maryland.

In 2002, the Terps continued to have the nation's premier defense as they led the nation in allowing just 6.88 goals per game for the top defense in the rankings. Slafkosky coached a pair of All-Americans in close defenders Howley and Passavia.

As the offensive coordinator in 2001, All-American attacker Andrew "Buggs" Combs became the second player in Maryland history to score 50 goals in a season. This will be Slafkosky's third stint as defensive coordinator at Maryland. Prior to the 2001 season, he served as defensive coordinator for five straight seasons.

Originally, Slafkosky was named defensive coordinator when he joined the Terps in 1984. After leading Maryland to the NCAA semifinals in 1987 and 1989, Edell had his old friend take over the offensive reins in 1991.

Without missing a beat, the Terps would soon experience the same success on the offensive end with Slafkosky at the wheel. Maryland would return to the NCAA semifinal in Slafkosky's first year with the offense in 1992. Under Slafkosky's tutelage, Mark Douglas would become a first-team All-American and establish the University of Maryland's single-season goal scoring mark of 51. In the same year, Rob Wurzburger would become the all-time career goal scorer with 137.

Maryland's offense would continue to be successful under Slafkosky's watch, qualifying for the NCAA's every year and reaching the finals in 1995. His most successful season came in 1995, with fellow assistant Scott Marr's new insight, as Maryland shattered the school's offensive record books. The Terps scored 235 goals and produced All-Americans in Kip Fulks and Rob Chomo. After the '95 season, Coach Slaf switched back to the defensive side knowing Maryland was in great shape with Marr running the offense.

Maryland's defense has become its trademark with its intimidating physical play. The Terps reached the finals in 1995, led by its National Defenseman of the Year, Dan Radebaugh. Defenseman Dave LaChapelle's play earned him second team All-America honors in 1997 and propelled the Terps into the championship game for the second time in three years.

Slafkosky worked heavily with 1998 ACC Player of the Year Kevin Healy, who was also a second team All-American. Slafkosky added another All-American honoree to his resume as Chris Lamy was honored by the USILA following the 1999 campaign. The 2000 season saw the emergence of a new star in goal, Pat McGinnis, who was among the nation's leaders in save percentage and goals against average throughout the season. The year culminated with McGinnis one of two Terps named All-ACC. Along with McGinnis, senior defender Casey Connor was honored as well. The solid close defenseman earned second team USILA All-American honors. It marked the fifth straight year a Terp defender earned All-American accolades – all under the tutelage of Slafkosky.

A 1974 graduate of Johns Hopkins, Slafkosky led the Blue Jays to a national championship his senior year as a midfielder.

Slafkosky and his wife of 24 years, Michelle, are the parents of four children: Daniel, Sarah, Kevin and Alex. Slafkosky continues to keep the memory of his eldest son Daniel close to him. A U.S. Marine, Daniel passed away in December 2000 at the age of 20.

ANDREW COPELAN

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND
BUCKNELL '01

Andrew Copelan is in his first season as an assistant coach at the University of Maryland and is responsible for assisting with the offensive and defensive units.

Copelan joined the Terps prior to the 2006 season after serving as the head coach at Marist College for the previous two seasons. He was also the Director of Intramural and Club Sports at Marist.

In 2004 Copelan, as the interim head coach, guided the Red Foxes to the MAAC regular-season, finishing the year 10-7 and 8-0 in conference play. It was the best season for the Red Foxes since 1988 and the most wins since 1986. For his efforts Copelan was named MAAC Coach of the Year. In 2005 he led the Red Foxes to the MAAC Tournament title and Marist's first ever trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Copelan was a four-year starter at Bucknell University. As a midfielder, Copelan helped lead the Bison to four consecutive Patriot League titles, and the program's first-ever NCAA berth in 2001. As a senior he earned All-Patriot League accolades, and was a four-time selection to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll for Student Athletes. He was also chosen as an alternate for the annual North-South game, a national senior all-star game.

Combining a strong knowledge and enthusiasm for the game, Copelan has worked throughout the Northeast in teaching lacrosse. He has coached at the Blue Chip Camp in Fairfield, Conn., one of the top camps in the region. Copelan has also assisted in teaching youth, running clinics in his hometown of Pittsford, N.Y., as well during his playing career at Bucknell.

STEVE GORSKI

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT • FOURTH SEASON AT MARYLAND
UMBC '96

Steve Gorski enters his fourth year as a volunteer assistant coach with the Maryland lacrosse program. Gorski will be responsible for coaching the goalkeepers as well as assisting with the defense.

During his four seasons at Maryland, Gorski has helped groom some of the nation's top goalies. Last season, Harry Alford had a breakout sophomore season between the pipes, finishing the season with a 58.2 save percentage, 8.26 goals against average, and 137 saves. Alford was selected as the ACC Tournament MVP and an honorable mention All-American.

In 2004, Gorski helped tutor Tim McGinnis to a stellar season. McGinnis finished the season fifth in the nation in save percentage with 62.1 percent and sixth overall with a 7.55 goals against average and was an honorable mention All-America selection.

In 2003, he aided Terps goalkeeper Danny McCormick to one of the best seasons in the nation, as he posted a 7.23 goals against average and was named a third team USILA All-American.

As an undergrad, Gorski was a four-year letterwinner in lacrosse at UMBC from 1993-96. He was awarded the Don Auer Award after his senior season in 1996 as the Retrievers' Unsung Lacrosse Player. He played goalie for more than three seasons before finishing as a defenseman. Overall, Gorski made 35 appearances with 14 starts in goal. He stands 10th all-time in saves at UMBC with 224. Twice he had a career-high 25 saves vs. Virginia as both a freshman and a sophomore.

Prior to coming to Maryland, Coach Gorski served as the head boys' lacrosse coach at Northeast High School in Pasadena, Md., from 1996-99 and worked as an assistant coach to Clay White at Broadneck High School in Annapolis from 2000-02. He teaches Advanced Placement US history at Broadneck and serves as a reader for the AP US History exam for the College Board.

He is married to Jennifer and they reside with their newborn twins Katie and John in Catonsville, Md.

DARIEN HS

On Wiggins: A great athlete who moves to close defense after spending 2005 as a long pole defender and face-off wingman ... was one of the top five high school players in the country ... brings a physical style of play ... not afraid to "body-up" on opponents ... good range ... "a great talent, but needs to maintain his discipline," according to Dave Cottle.

As a freshman (2005): Made his collegiate debut, picking up two groundballs, in 16-10 win over UMBC (3/19) ... one groundball in 9-4 win over No. 19 North Carolina (3/26) ... two groundballs in 9-8 loss at No. 8 Navy (4/8) ... two groundballs in 11-6 loss to No. 1 Johns Hopkins (4/15) ... one groundball and a caused turnover in 9-6 win at No. 15 Fairfield (4/23) ... one caused turnover in 9-5 win over No. 2 Duke (5/1) to win the ACC championship ... career high three groundballs and a caused turnover in 21-6 drubbing of Penn (5/7) at Lincoln Financial Field ... one groundball in 14-10 win over No. 11 Penn State (5/14) in the first round of the NCAA Tournament ... one groundball in 9-8 overtime win over No. 8 Georgetown (5/22) in the NCAA Quarterfinals ... career-high five groundballs in 18-9 loss to No. 2 Duke (5/28) in the NCAA Semifinals ... named to the Maryland Honor Roll.

Before Maryland: US Lacrosse high school All-American ... led Darien to a 19-3 record in 2004 ... scored 22 goals, added 14 assists and picked up 65 groundballs as a senior ... totaled 177 groundballs during his four seasons ... 2003 all-New England honoree ... ... also played receiver on the Darien football team ... earned all-state and all-league honors on the gridiron ... also the team's kicker ... set the school record with a 57-yard field goal.

Personal: Born on March 1, 1986 ... son of Steve and Katherine Wiggins ... brother of Matt and Rosie ...adopted brother, Akin Akinbala, played basketball at Clemson from 2001-05 ... also recruited by Johns Hopkins, Virginia and Georgetown ... hobbies include fishing, golfing and yachting ... majoring in business.

2005 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

TERPS REPEAT AS ACC CHAMPS, MAKE FINAL FOUR.

LACROSSE HANDS OUT TEAM AWARDS

The Maryland men's lacrosse team and head coach Dave Cottle welcomed back the 2005 seniors that led the Terps to back-to-back ACC Championships and a berth in the 2005 NCAA Final Four, on Sunday, October 16, for the annual awards banquet at Heritage Hall in the Comcast Center on the campus of the University of Maryland.

The highlight of the afternoon's awards was the presentation of the "Big Man" Award, given in honor of former coach Dick Edell. The award was created to honor the player that best exemplified the selfless and positive qualities of the retired coach. The 2005 award was given to Andrew Schwartzman, who scored one of the most memorable goals in Maryland lacrosse history in overtime vs. Georgetown in the NCAA Quarterfinals to send the Terps to the Final Four for the second time in three years.

The Daniel Slafkosky Coach's Award was also given out, in memory of assistant coach Dave Slafkosky's son, who passed away prior to the 2001 season. The coaches chose this year's recipient, midfielder Ian Healy, as the player who best illustrated Dan's positive attitude on and off the field.

The Edwin Powell Award, which is presented to the Team MVP, was given to junior attackman Joe Walters, who led the team with 53 points and 38 goals.

Other awards given out in honor of individual accomplishments throughout the 2005 season were:

Van Trump Award (best overall attackman): Joe Walters
Deckman-Silber Award (best overall defenseman): Ray Megill and Steve Whittenberg
William Cole Award (best overall midfielder): Bill McGlone
Dan Snyder Award (most improved player): Harry Alford
Levitt Memorial Award (best freshman): Joe Cinosky and Maxwell Ritz
Faber Heagy Award (unsung hero): Ryan Lang and Xander Ritz
Scholar-Athlete Award: Ian Healy
Man-Down Award: Gavin Webb
"Be The Best" Strength & Conditioning Award: Tyler Hereth
"Iron Terp" Award (stongest Terp pound-for-pound): Brendan Healy
Hammer Award (biggest hitter in 2005): James Borell

MARYLAND WINS ACC TOURNAMENT AND ADVANCES TO FINAL FOUR

Following a 5-5 start that saw Maryland on the verge of not making the NCAA tournament, the Terps rallied and strung together six straight victories to earn a trip to their second Final Four in the past three seasons.

The turnaround started at Fairfield with a 9-6 win over the 15th-ranked Stags and continued with an amazing weekend at the ACC Tournament in Baltimore. Max Ritz sent Maryland to the finals with a put-back goal to give the Terps a 9-8 win in overtime over No. 3 Virginia. Awaiting Maryland in the finals was second-ranked Duke, who gave Maryland its first loss of the season in March. The Terps dominated the Blue Devils, holding the nation's most prolific offense to a season-low five goals in a 9-5 Maryland win.

A 21-6 win over Penn in the regular-season finale at Lincoln Financial Field gave Maryland a lot of momentum heading into the NCAA Tournament.

Seeded third in the tournament, the Terps waited out a weather delay of more than two and a half hours before dispatching a tough Penn State team in the first round at Byrd Stadium.

That sent the Terps to Princeton, N.J., for a rematch with No. 6 seed Georgetown in the quarterfinals. Maryland seemed to have the game wrapped up with a two-goal lead with 93 seconds remaining, but Bill McGlone's goal was disallowed due to a stick infraction and the Hoyas tied the game and sent it into overtime. That just set the stage for Andrew Schwartzman to score the biggest goal of his four-year career and send the Terps to the Final Four. Schwartzman dodged and split a pair of Hoya defenders and slipped a shot over the left shoulder of the Hoya keeper to give Maryland the win and a trip to Philadelphia.

TERPS TOPS IN STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

- According to the Wobus computer rankings, Maryland played the toughest schedule in all of college lacrossein 2005.
- The Terps played seven of the teams in the top 11 of the final USILA Geico/STX Coaches' Poll, including three times against No. 2 Duke and twice vs. No. 6 Virginia.
- Of Maryland's 17 games only two were against an unranked opponent (UMBC on March 19 and Dartmouth on March 22). But Dartmouth finished the year ranked 14th. North Carolina was ranked when they played the Terps, but finished the season just receiving votes.

McGLONE LEADS SIX TERPS ON ALL-AMERICA TEAM

- Junior Bill McGlone was named to the USILA All-America first team for the first time in his career as the team's were announced Saturday morning before the NCAA Final Four began at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.
- A total of six Terps were honored by the USILA, bringing Maryland's three-year total to 22. Junior attackman Joe Walters, a first-team selection in 2004 and an honorable mention honoree in 2003, was named to the second team, while sophomore defender Steve Whittenberg was named to the third team. Maryland also had three honorable mention selections: sophomore goalie Harry Alford, junior midfielder Brendan Healy and sophomore defender Ray Megill.

SHOOTING TELLS THE STORY

- Coach Dave Cottle is on record saying that good teams will shoot at least 30%. As it turns out 30% is the magic number for the Terps this season.
- In Maryland's 11 victories this season the Terrapins are shooting 31.0% (131 goals/423 shots). In their six losses the Terps are shooting just 17.3% (39 goals/225 shots).
- Maybe just as telling is the shots on goal percentage. Maryland has put 250 of its 423 shots on goal (59.1%) in its 11 wins, but just 119 of 225 shots (52.8%) were on net in five defeats.
- The Terps' shooting relates directly to their scoring. In 11 victories Maryland is averaging nearly 12 points per game. In their six losses the Terps are scoring a mere 6.5 goals per game.

HOME VS. AWAY

- A lot is made in sports about the home-field advantage and for the Maryland men's lacrosse team in 2005 it was with good reason. The Terps played six games at home and 11 away from College Park (5 road, 6 neutral) and the numbers showed a decided edge for Terps when they were on familiar ground.
- Maryland averaged 11.0 goals per game in its six home games, but that number dipped to 9.37 on the road.
- Shooting percentage, which is one of Coach Cottle's key statistics, was another tell-tale stat. In College Park the Terps shot 28.8% (66/229), but on the road they shot 24.8% (104/419). Shots on goal percentage showed another advantage for home games, 59.0% to 55.8%.
- Joe Walters, the team's overall leading scorer, was also Maryland's leading scorer in both home and away games. The All-American racked up 16 goals and seven assists at home, while amassing 22 goals and eight assists on the road.
- Harry Alford was spectacular no matter where he's played last year. The Kelly Award candidate made 69 saves in the team's six home games with a 8.43 GAA and a .612 save pct. On the road he racked up 112 saves in 11 games with a 8.16 GAA and a .563 save pct.

HEALY ELECTED INTO PHI BETA KAPPA

- Maryland midfielder Ian Healy was elected into membership of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest and largest academic honor society. Healy became just the third Terrapin student-athlete in the history of the University to be elected into Phi Beta Kappa.

2005 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1

NO. 5 MARYLAND 13
NO. 6 GEORGETOWN..... 6
February 26, 2005
Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Maryland goalie Harry Alford stopped 25 Georgetown shots to lead the fourth ranked Terrapin men's lacrosse over the No. 5 Hoyas, 13-6, Saturday afternoon before a overflowing capacity crowd at the Maryland Field Hockey and Lacrosse Complex.

Making his first career start Alford, a sophomore from Washington, D.C., allowed only three goals through three quarters and made 10 saves in the fourth quarter alone.

Offensively Maryland showed a balanced attack that saw 11 different Terps score goals on the afternoon. Leading the way was junior All-American midfielder Bill McGlone with three goals to extend his goal scoring streak to 17, dating back to last season.

No other Terps scored more than one goal, but national player of the year candidate Joe Walters scored a goal to extend his goal scoring streak to 17. The junior attackman also added four assists for a five-point game, the seventh game of his stellar career with at least five points.

Other Terps with multiple-point games off of one goal and an assist were junior All-American Brendan Healy, senior attackman Dave Matz and sophomore attackman Michael Phipps.

The catalyst for the Maryland offense proved to be face-off specialist David Tamberrino, who won eight of the 11 draws that he took during the game. The junior also contributed four groundballs.

Two Terps scored in their first-ever games for Maryland. Freshman Will Dalton from Queenstown, Md., scored at the 6:03 mark of the first quarter off an assist from Walters to give Maryland a 3-1 lead. Sophomore James Borell, a transfer from Air Force, scored at 4:20 in the third to cap off a 7-1 scoring blitz for the Terps.

The Maryland defense, which was a question mark heading into this season, stifled the Hoya attack and didn't allow Georgetown clear looks at the goal. Sophomore Steve Whittenberg, a transfer from Air Force playing in his first game for the Terps, picked up a four groundballs and caused a turnover.

For the Hoyas, Trevor Casey and Sean Denihan each scored a pair of goals, while All-American defender Brodie Merrill picked up a game-high 11 groundballs, caused four turnovers and added an assist.

GAME 2

NO. 3 MARYLAND 8
NO. 12 DUKE..... 10
March 5, 2005
Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Maryland's All-American attackman Joe Walters scored his 19th career hat trick, but it wasn't enough as the No. 12 Duke Blue Devils (4-0, 1-0 ACC) handed the No. 3 Maryland (1-1, 0-1 ACC) men's lacrosse team its first defeat of the season.

The Terps jumped on Duke in the first quarter, racing out to a 3-0 lead off goals by All-American Bill McGlone, Michael Phipps and Walters.

Duke came roaring back in the second period, scoring three goals in just over five minutes to tie the game at 3-3. The Terrapins retook the lead when Phipps and Walters each scored their second goals of the game to give Maryland a 5-3 lead with 2:36 remaining in the half. The Terps looked to be in good shape to add to their lead when Duke's Matt Zash picked up a slashing penalty at the 1:30 mark, but Blue Devil attackman Matt Danowski scored a man-down goal to cut the Maryland lead to 5-4 and give Duke the momentum heading into halftime.

Maryland appeared to stymie that momentum when Terrapin senior midfielder Andrew Schwartzman scored his second goal of the season to increase the Terps' lead to 6-4. But that would be the last lead Maryland would enjoy as Duke answered back with three straight goals to finish the third quarter with a 7-6 lead.

The Blue Devils extended their advantage with two more goals in the first three minutes of the fourth quarter to go up 9-6. But All-American Brendan Healy and Walters answered back for the Terps with back-to-back goals to cut the lead to 9-8.

But with less than two minutes remaining, Maryland goalie Harry Alford came out from the net to help pressure the ball, allowing Duke midfielder Kyle Dowd to score the insurance goal with 1:28 left in the game.

The Terps pressured the Blue Devil defense in the final minute and a half, but were unable to get a clean shot off on the Duke net.

GAME 3

NO. 9 TOWSON..... 5
NO. 6 MARYLAND 9
March 12, 2005
Unitas Stadium

TOWSON, Md. - All-American midfielder Bill McGlone scored his fourth career hat trick to help sixth-ranked Maryland (2-1) knock No. 9 Towson (3-1) from the ranks of the unbeaten, 9-5, at Unitas Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The Tigers jumped on the scoreboard midway through the first quarter when Keith Obloj scored an unassisted goal for a 1-0 lead. The Terps answered right back with McGlone's first goal at 6:27 to tie the score at 1-1.

Maryland took its first lead of the game at 1:24 of the first when All-American Joe Walters fired a low angle shot from the right wing that found its way past Towson goalie Reed Sothoron for 2-1 Terrapin lead.

The Tigers came back early in the second with back-to-back goals for a 3-2 lead. But the Terps, behind goals from Walters, Xander Ritz and Michael Phipps took a 5-2 lead into halftime.

The Terps dominated possession in the third quarter, outshooting the Tigers 14-3. But it wasn't until senior midfielder Andrew Schwartzman scored a man-up goal at the 4:57 mark that the Terps added another score for a 6-3 lead. The Tigers trimmed the lead to 6-4 with 11 seconds left in the quarter on a goal by Jonathan Engelke.

Towson scored again just over three minutes into the fourth to cut the Terrapin lead to one. But Phipps found a cutting Xander Ritz in the crease, who fired a shot past Sothoron to give the Terps a two-goal cushion. McGlone put the game out of reach with the final two goals of the game at the 9:18 and 6:25 marks, respectively.

For the game Maryland outshot the Tigers 45-27, including a decisive 29-8 margin in the second half. The Terps' special teams continued to shine as the man-up unit cashed in on two-of-five opportunities, and the final two Tiger penalties came with only 25 seconds left in the fourth quarter. On the flip side, the man-down defense was stellar not allowing Towson a shot during two 30-second penalties.

Sophomore goalie Harry Alford turned in another fine performance for the Terps, making 12 saves and collecting three ground balls. The Terps' defensive unit as a whole was outstanding all day, limiting the Tigers' starting attackmen to one goal and one assist on just four shots. Leading the way for the Maryland defense was sophomore defender Steve Whittenberg and sophomore defensive short-stick middie Travis Holmes, who each picked up four groundballs and caused two turnovers.

Game Notes:

- With two goals and an assist Joe Waters extended his goal and point scoring streak to 19 straight games. He now has 23 career multi-goal games and 29 multi-point games.
- Bill McGlone extended his goal and point scoring streaks to 19 with his first quarter goal.
- McGlone has scored the Terps' first goal of the game in each of Maryland's three games this season.
- Today's game marks the 23rd game that Walters and McGlone have scored goals in the same game. The Terps are 18-5 in those 23 games.
- Brendan Healy, Michael Phipps, Andrew Schwartzman and Xander Ritz extended their point scoring streaks to three games. Phipps' and Schwartzman's streaks are also goal scoring streaks, having scored a goal in each game so far in 2005. Six Terps have scored in each of Maryland's 2005 games.
- Phipps set career highs for assists (3) and points (4) in today's game vs. Towson. His previous career bests for assists and points were two and three, respectively, at Duke last year.
- Will Dalton won the opening face-off of the second half, his first collegiate face-off.
- Maryland's two man-up goals vs. the Tigers gives the Terps seven man-up goals on the season in 14 opportunities. The Terps have scored at least one man-up goal in each of their three games this season.
- The win was Maryland's 12th straight over the Tigers in Towson. Towson has never defeated the Terps on their home field.

GAME 4

NO. 18 BUCKNELL 10
NO. 4 MARYLAND 14

March 15, 2005
Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium

LEWISBURG, Pa. - Travis Holmes' first-career goal at the 1:14 mark of the third quarter started the fourth-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team on a six-goal run to propel the Terps to a 14-10 victory over No. 18 Bucknell at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium Tuesday afternoon.

Maryland got out to a quick 2-0 lead, but Bison goalie Matt Baran kept his team in the game, making eight saves in the first quarter. Bill McGlone's eighth goal of the season extended Maryland's lead to 3-1, but Patrick Christianson scored a man-up goal with three seconds left in the first to trim the lead to 3-2.

Bucknell tied the score at 3-3 at 13:37 and took the lead for the only time in the game less than a minute later. Senior Dave Matz scored his second goal of the game, which set a single game best for the senior, to knot the score at 4-4 with 6:07 left in the half. Junior All-American Brendan Healy gave the Terps some momentum heading into halftime with his second goal of the game and a 5-4 Maryland lead.

The second half started out slow, but James Borell and All-American Joe Walters scored back-to-back goals to extend the Terps' lead to 7-4. But the Bison, who trailed No. 2 Navy 7-4 last Saturday before coming back to win the game 8-7 in overtime, scored twice in 27 seconds to cut the lead to 7-6.

That's when Holmes' took a pass from short-stick defensive midfielder Ryan Lang, who earned his first career assist on the goal, and scored the goal that started a 6-0 Maryland scoring run that put the Terps up 13-6. The scoring run was highlighted by sophomore Michael Phipps, who scored two goals and added an assist.

Maryland dominated the game in almost every statistical category, including a 45-29 shooting advantage and a 47-27 lead in groundballs.

McGlone finished the game with four points on two goals and two assists, while Brendan Healy netted his first hat trick of the season and third of his career. Defensively the Terps were lead by Steve Whittenberg and Lang, who picked up six and five groundballs, respectively, while sophomore goalie Harry Alford made 10 saves.

Junior face-off specialist David Tamberrino consistently gave the Terps possession, winning 14 of 22 draws and picking up a game-high nine groundballs.

Maryland returns home for a 1:00 p.m. game vs. UMBC this Saturday, March 19, at Byrd Stadium.

Game Notes:

- With today's 14-10 win Maryland is 7-0 all-time vs. Bucknell and the Terps are now 2-0 at Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium.
- Bill McGlone's goal in the first quarter extended his point and goal scoring streaks to 20.
- Joe Walters's assist of Dave Matz's second goal extends his point scoring streak to 20.
- Walters' goal in the third period extends his goal scoring streak to 20.
- Dave Matz's two goals set a new career high. He had previously scored a single goal on seven occasions.
- Travis Holmes scored his first career goal on just his third career shot. The assist on Holmes' goal went to fellow short-stick defensive midfielder Ryan Lang, his first ever assist.
- Walters, McGlone, Michael Phipps, Brendan Healy and Xander Ritz have now scored at least one point in each of the Terps' four games in 2005.
- Max Ritz scored his first collegiate goal at 3:48 in the fourth quarter.
- Maryland now boasts an all-time record vs. current Patriot League schools of 82-49-1.

GAME 5

NO. 4 MARYLAND 16
UMBC 10

March 19, 2005
Byrd Stadium

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - National player of the year candidate Joe Walters matched a career-high with six goals and All-American Bill McGlone found the back of the net a career-high five times, as Maryland scored the first five goals after halftime to pull away from in-state foe UMBC 16-10 Saturday afternoon at Byrd Stadium. The Terrapins (4-1) have won six straight meetings over the Retrievers (1-4).

The two juniors ignited the Terps' attack early, scoring three unassisted goals in the opening 2:57, and McGlone tallied his fifth career hat trick on a score less than five minutes into the game.

After falling behind 6-2 after the opening stanza, UMBC crept to within one goal twice late in the second quarter, but Walters registered his fourth goal of the game with just nine seconds left before halftime, giving the Terps an 8-6 lead at the break.

With just a two goal lead, Maryland stormed out of the locker room, getting five straight goals from Brendan Healy, Ian Healy, Michael Hartofilis and a pair by Walters that gave Maryland a commanding 13-6 cushion.

The Terrapins' offensive attack was keyed by a strong performance in the face-off circle by David Tamberrino, Thomas Alford and Will Dalton. Tamberrino finished 14-of-18 in the faceoff circle, Alford won 4-of-6 and Dalton was successful on 2-of-5 attempts.

Defensively, Maryland got stroung outings from long-stick defensive midfielder Ryan Clarke, who set a career high with six groundballs, and sophomore Ray Megill, who caused two turnovers and picked up one groundball.

Pacing the Retrievers were Drew Westervelt and Brendan Mundorf, who each registered five points on two goals and three assists.

GAME 7

NO. 4 MARYLAND 9
NO. 19 NORTH CAROLINA . 4

March 26, 2005
Byrd Stadium

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Sophomore goalie Harry Alford had 20 saves and held North Carolina (2-5/0-2 ACC) to a season-low four goals as Maryland (5-2/1-1 ACC) got back in the win column with a 9-4 triumph over the Tar Heels. It was the lowest scoring output for UNC in the series since a 5-4 loss in 1989.

Brendan Healy, Joe Walters and Michael Phipps each had a pair of goals to pace the Terrapin offense. Michael Hartofilis had a career-high three assists.

Healy and Phipps put the Terps in front with first-quarter scores and Walters added his 17th goal of the season with 12:59 remaining in the second quarter to push the lead to 3-0.

Alford held the Tar Heels scoreless until Ryan Blair broke the drought with five minutes left before halftime. The sophomore keeper shined in the third quarter, stopping 12 Tar Heel shots. After North Carolina drew within 3-2, Bill McGlone and Hartofilis tallied scores to give the Terps some breathing room.

Again, North Carolina closed the gap to one at 5-4 on goals 37 seconds apart by Ryan Blair and Rob Driscoll. Consecutive goals by Ian and Brendan Healy bumped the lead back up to three, before Phipps and Walters closed the scoring. Hartofilis assisted on the first and last goals of the final period, giving him the trifecta. Entering Saturday's game, the junior midfielder had recorded just two assists in his previous two seasons combined.

Freshman Will Dalton recorded the best performance of his young career in the face-off circle, winning 6-of-9 to help Maryland gain possession and chew up clock in the final quarter.

Alford's 20 saves represents his second highest total this season. He stopped a career-high 25 shots against Georgetown in a 13-6 season-opening win. It was also the fewest goals Maryland has allowed since an 11-2 pasting of Virginia last season.

Game Notes:

- With today's 9-4 win Maryland is 32-18 all-time vs. North Carolina.
- Joe Walters and Bill McGlone extended their goal and point scoring streaks to 23.
- Maryland is 20-6 in games in which Walters and McGlone score a goal in the same game.
- Ian and Brendan Healy each scored goals vs. UNC. The brothers have now scored goals in the same game eight times.
- Walters, McGlone and Xander Ritz have now scored at least one point in each of the Terps' seven games in 2005.
- The Maryland defense held the Tar Heels scoreless for the first 25:00 of the game, marking the fourth time this season that the Terps have held an opponent without a goal for 20 minutes or longer.

GAME 8

NO. 3 VIRGINIA..... 10
NO. 4 MARYLAND 2

April 2, 2005
Klockner Stadium

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - The fourth-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team dropped a 10-2 decision to the third-ranked Virginia Cavaliers Saturday afternoon at Klöckner Stadium in Charlottesville.

Virginia jumped on top of the Terps 2-0 in the first few minutes of the game and could not recover. The Cavaliers led the game 5-0 at halftime.

Virginia extended its lead to 6-0 early in the third quarter, but All-America attackman Joe Walters got the Terps on the board at the 4:51 mark with his team leading 19th goal of the season.

Maryland continued to scrap its way back into the game and Xander Ritz scored his sixth goal of the season with 12:29 remaining in the fourth to trim the lead to 6-2. But that was as close as the Terps would get on the afternoon. Virginia reclaimed a five-goal lead less than two minutes later when Matt Paskay scored his first goal of the game.

The Cavaliers wrapped up the game with another three goals in the fourth quarter to bring the final score to 10-2.

Sophomore Harry Alford turned in another fine performance for Maryland in goal, stopping 13 Cavalier shots in the loss.

Game Notes:

- With today's 10-2 loss Maryland is 43-30 all-time vs. Virginia.
- The last time Maryland was held to two goals or less in a game was 2001 at Virginia. The Cavaliers won that contest 7-2.
- Maryland was held without a goal in the first quarter, which marks the first time the Terps have been held scoreless in a quarter since May 1, 2004 vs. Notre Dame.
- Joe Walters extended his goal and point scoring streaks to 24 with his goal at 4:51 of the third quarter.
- Bill McGlone assisted on Walters' goal to extend his point scoring streak to 24. McGlone had his goal scoring streak snapped at 23.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak to eight games with his fourth-quarter goal.
- Walters, McGlone and Xander Ritz have now scored at least one point in each of the Terps' eight games in 2005.

GAME 9

NO. 8 NAVY 9
NO. 6 MARYLAND 8

April 8, 2005
Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - Graham Gill's goal with 14 seconds left in the fourth quarter propelled the eighth-ranked Navy Midshipmen to a 9-8 victory over the sixth-ranked Maryland Terrapins Friday night at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

The first period began slowly with neither team able to crack the other's defense. That changed for the Terps at the 4:40 mark when Bill McGlone scored his 17th goal of the season for a 1-0 Maryland lead. But the Midshipmen scored twice in less than 10 seconds to take a 2-1 lead into the second period.

Maryland came right back to tie the game at 2-2 on an unassisted goal by Xander Ritz at 13:27. Joe Walters, off a feed from Brendan Healy, scored his first goal of the game three minutes later for a 3-2 Terrapin advantage. That advantage wouldn't last though as Steve Looney scored twice to lead Navy on a four-goal run spanning the end of the second quarter into the third for a 6-3 Midshipman lead.

Walters refused to let the Terps go away quietly, scoring his second and third goals of the night to bring Maryland to within a goal at 6-5. Then the unlikeliest of heroes stepped up for the Terps. Face-off specialist David Tamberrino pushed the face-off into the Navy half, took the groundball straight to the Midshipmen net and fired his first-career shot past Navy goalie Matt Russell for his first ever goal to tie the game.

The Mids regained the lead at the 11:26 mark of the fourth quarter on a Jon Birsner goal. But Maryland midfielder Brendan Healy picked a most opportune time to break out of a prolonged shooting slump, scoring two goals in 30 seconds to lift the Terps to an 8-7 advantage.

The game remained that way until Gill scored his second goal of the night at the 2:02 mark to tie the game at 8-8. Gill would register the hat trick with time ticking down to send the Mids home with a 9-8 victory.

A crowd of 14,124 was in attendance for the game, making it the largest crowd ever to see a Maryland-Navy game in Annapolis.

Game Notes:

- With today's 9-8 loss Maryland is 49-30-1 all-time vs. Navy.
- The loss, coupled with last season's 9-6 defeat, marks the first time Maryland has lost consecutive games to Navy since the 1980-81 seasons.
- Bill McGlone's goal at 4:44 in the first quarter extended his point scoring streak to 25 games.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak to nine games with his second-quarter goal.
- Joe Walters' second-quarter goal extended his goal and point scoring streaks to 25 games.
- When McGlone and Walters score goals in the same game the Terps are now 20-7.
- David Tamberrino scored his first career goal on his first-ever shot in the third quarter to tie the score at 6-6.

GAME 10

NO. 9 MARYLAND 6
NO. 1 JOHNS HOPKINS .. 11

April 15, 2005
Byrd Stadium, College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - No. 1 Johns Hopkins spoiled Senior Night at Maryland Friday night, using a four-goal spurt in the third quarter to secure an 11-6 victory over the Terps in the 101st meeting of the two lacrosse powerhouses.

Freshman Kevin Huntley notched his third hat trick of the season and added one assist to pace Hopkins, who remain perfect in nine games this season. Maryland falls to 5-5. Hopkins goalie Jesse Schwartzman stopped 17 shots, his second-highest career total, while freshman midfielder Paul Rabil added two goals and an assist.

Six Terrapins registered goals and Joe Walters, Xander Ritz and Dave Matz each picked up assists to go along with their tallies.

Kyle Harrison got Hopkins on the board early with an unassisted goal 37 seconds into the contest. Stephen Peyser and Kyle Barrie followed with scores before Brendan Healy brought Maryland to within 3-1 at the 1:10 mark of the first quarter with an extra-man goal.

Walters and Ritz recorded goals to even the match at 3-3, before Jake Byrne and Huntley lifted the Blue Jays to a two-goal lead at the break.

Maryland would cut the gap to 5-4 on an unassisted goal by Matz two minutes into the half, but Hopkins got four straight scores from Huntley, Rabil, Peyser and Peter LeSueur to break the game open after three quarters.

The game was witnessed by a crowd of 10,117, which is the largest crowd for a lacrosse game at Byrd Stadium since May 20, 2001 when the Terps hosted Towson in front of 10,118 fans in an NCAA Quarterfinal game.

Game Notes:

- With today's 11-6 loss Maryland is 36-54-1 all-time vs. Johns Hopkins.
- The Terps have lost three straight games, marking the longest losing streak since dropping a program worst four straight in 1988.
- Bill McGlone's extended his point scoring streak to 26 games with his fourth-quarter goal.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak to 10 games with his second-quarter goal.
- Joe Walters' assist on Brendan Healy's first-quarter goal extended his point scoring streaks to 26 games. He extended his goal scoring streak to 26 with his goal in the second quarter.
- When McGlone and Walters score goals in the same game the Terps are now 20-8.
- Xander and Max Ritz each scored a goal, which is the first time they have scored in the same game at Maryland.

GAME 11

NO. 15 FAIRFIELD 6
NO. 10 MARYLAND 9

April 23, 2005
Alumni Field

FAIRFIELD, Conn. - Senior attackman Andrew Schwartzman scored his first career hat trick and added two assists to lead the 10th-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 9-6 victory over the No. 15 Fairfield at Alumni Field in Fairfield, Conn.

The Stags jumped out to a quick 1-0 lead, but Schwartzman scored back-to-back goals to give the Terps a 2-1 lead. Fairfield tied the game at 2-2 at the 1:34 mark of the first quarter when Travis Nelson converted on a man-up opportunity.

The second quarter began with another Stags goal to give them a 3-2 lead, but All-American Joe Walters and Brendan Healy scored back-to-back goals in just over a minute's time to give Maryland a 4-3 advantage. Fairfield tied the game at 4-4 on a goal by Matt Bockett. Brendan Healy put the Terps up again at 6:23 off an assist by Xander Ritz. Maryland got the game's first two-goal lead off a goal by Max Ritz.

But the Stags would not go away quietly in the first half, roaring back with two goals in less than a minute to send the two team's into halftime with the game tied at 6-6.

The Terps took control to the game in the third quarter with three unanswered goals. Schwartzman set up the first goal of the second half, finding Xander Ritz who promptly beat Stags goalie Michael Kruger for a 7-6 lead. Max Ritz pushed the lead to 8-6 on his second goal of the game, a diving wrap-around shot into the left corner of the Fairfield net. Schwartzman capped the scoring in the third with his third goal of the game and a 9-6 lead for the Terps.

Both teams turned up the intensity in the fourth quarter, but the Terrapin defense continued it's outstanding play in the second half and held the Stags scoreless.

For the game the Terps caused 15 Fairfield turnovers in support of sophomore goalie Harry Alford who made seven shots on the afternoon. Sophomore defender Ray Megill turned in a fine performance, picking up four groundballs and causing three turnovers.

The victory snapped a three-game losing streak for Maryland and gives the Terps some momentum heading into the ACC Tournament.

Game Notes:

- With today's 9-6 win Maryland is 1-0 all-time vs. Fairfield.
- Schwartzman's five points sets a new career high, as does his three goals.
- Joe Walters' second-quarter goal extended his point and goal scoring streaks to 27 games.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak to 1 games with an assist on Brendan Healy's second second-quarter goal.
- Xander and Max Ritz each scored a goal, marking the second consecutive game they have scored in the same game at Maryland.

GAME 12
ACC SEMIFINALS

NO. 3 VIRGINIA. 7
NO. 10 MARYLAND . . . 8 (OT)

April 29, 2005
M&T Bank Stadium

BALTIMORE, Md. - Max Ritz scored the game-winner with 1:20 left in the overtime after one-timing a rebound on a Bill McGlone shot capping a Maryland rally as the Terps defeated Virginia 8-7 Friday night at M&T Bank Stadium.

With the win, the Terps (7-5) advanced to the ACC Finals where they will take on Duke, who defeated North Carolina 13-11 earlier in the day.

Maryland controlled the pace of play in the first quarter holding a 12-5 advantage in shots. Brendan Healy put the Terps midway through the first finishing in transition at the 7:30 mark. After the teams traded saves and turnovers, Virginia's John Christmas evened the score after taking a feed from Matt Ward.

The 'Hoos took a 3-1 lead to start the second half after Matt Poskay finished on a pass from Kyle Dixon. Less than a minute later, Christmas got loose on a man-up opportunity and found Dixon for the goal. The Terps stormed back in the quarter, though, closing the period on a 3-0 run on scores from Max Ritz, Healy and Xander Ritz and Harry Alford made a save as time expired to give Maryland a 4-3 halftime advantage.

Drew Thompson quickly evened the score at 13:05 after Virginia's Jack deVilliers won the face-off. The 'Hoos took the lead just three minutes later after Rob Bateman found Matt Ward for the score. Andrew Schwartzman answered for the Terps just after their extra-man opportunity expired. Maryland won the ensuing face-off, but a save by Kip Turner started the UVa possession and Brendan Gill converted on the other end for a 6-5 lead with 3:56 left in the third quarter. The third period closed with each team unable to convert on 30-second extra-man opportunities.

Virginia stretched its lead to 7-5 in the fourth quarter after Dixon's second goal of the game. Dixon took a feed from Christmas from behind the cage and his shot was re-directed past Alford by a Maryland defender at 11:29. Schwartzman pulled the Terps within one six minutes later after his second goal of the game on a man-up opportunity after J.J. Horrisey was called for a pushing penalty. After a Maryland timeout at 2:54, Bill McGlone dodged to his left and got free and bounced his shot past the keeper to tie the score at 7-7. Virginia controlled the ensuing face-off, but Dixon turned the ball over in the offensive end with just under two minutes left. The Terps controlled the clock for the remainder of the game, and McGlone fired the final shot of the game but Turner was up to the task to make the save with just three seconds left in the game.

Virginia appeared to have the game-winner 19 seconds into the overtime, but timeout was called before Morrissey's shot left his stick. Alford made two point-blank saves - including one in which he had to get back to his feet to save a shot by Brendan Gill. The Cavs got off six shots in the possession but were unable to capitalize. The Terps then appeared to turn the ball over, but again were saved by a timeout from the bench. McGlone fired a shot from 15 yards that was saved by Turner, but Max Ritz jumped in the air and one-timed the shot past Turner for the game-winner with just 1:20 left in the overtime.

Game Notes:

- With today's 8-7 overtime win Maryland is 44-30 all-time vs. Virginia
- The Terps are now 4-3 vs. Virginia in the ACC Tournament.
- Maryland is now 7-9 all-time in the ACC Semifinals.
- Joe Walters' second-quarter assist on Xander Ritz's goal extended his point scoring streak to 28 games, but his goal scoring streak ends at 27. The last time Walters did not score a goal in a game was May 24, 2003 vs. Virginia at M&T Bank Stadium (then Ravens Stadium) in the NCAA Semifinals.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak to 12 games with a goal and two assists.
- Xander and Max Ritz each scored a goal, marking the third consecutive game they have scored in the same game at Maryland.

GAME 13
ACC FNALS

NO. 2 DUKE 5
NO. 10 MARYLAND 9

May 1, 2005
M&T Bank Stadium

BALTIMORE, Md. - The Maryland Terrapins successfully defended their ACC title by defeating Duke, 9-5, Sunday afternoon in front of 5,681 fans at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore. The Terp defense held the nation's most prolific offense to a season-low five goals.

The Terps were led by Joe Walters' four points on three goals and one assist. Harry Alford made 15 saves on the day and was named the tournament's most valuable player. Will Dalton won 7-of-10 face-offs as the Terps claimed their third-ever ACC title.

Matt Danowski added three assists and one goal to help pace the Blue Devils offensively. Aaron Fenton contributed 12 saves for Duke. Duke took an early 1-0 lead just 1:11 into the game as Matt Danowski connected on a pass to Kyle Dowd on an extra-man opportunity. Danowski notched his second assist five minutes later as he worked to his right and drew a pair of defenders and then tossed a pass back to the middle of the field where Dan Flannery fired a shot past Harry Alford for a 2-0 lead. Jimmy Borell got the Terps on the board after controlling a bounce pass from Joe Walters and firing past the Blue Devil keeper. Duke controlled the majority of the rest of the first quarter holding an 11-6 advantage in shots, but still only held a one-goal lead.

Walters tied the game at 2-2 at the 11:09 mark in the second quarter after taking a pass from Xander Ritz on the left side. Walters' shot took a bounce in front of the crease and went in on the far post. Walters put the Terps up just over a minute later after Xander Ritz forced a Duke turnover deep in the offensive zone. Walters scooped up the ground ball and beat Aaron Fenton for the 3-2 Maryland advantage. The two defenses clamped down for the rest of the period not allowing any clear looks at goal and the Terps took the one-goal lead into the locker room. After allowing two goals in the first six minutes, the Maryland defense kept the Blue Devils off the board in the final 24 minutes of the half.

Andrew Schwartzman put the Terps up 4-2 after seven minutes of scoreless action in the third quarter after he worked on the left side of the cage, got inside his defender and beat the keeper. After Duke was called for too many men on the field, the Terps capitalized on their first man-up opportunity when Xander Ritz worked behind the cage and found Bill McGlone alone in front of the net to push the Maryland advantage to 5-2 at the 3:02 mark. The Terps again converted on a man-up opportunity as Ian Healy scooped up a loose ball in front of the cage and fired the shot past Fenton.

The Terp defense dominated the third quarter allowing just four Duke shots, none of which were on frame.

The Blue Devils got their first goal in just over 40 minutes when Danowski gathered a rebound and shot it behind his back past Alford for the score with 13:04 left in the fourth quarter.

The Terps recaptured a four-goal lead again after Steve Wittenberg picked off a Duke pass in the offensive zone and raced down the field. His pass was deflected but picked up by Maxwell Ritz who got the shot past the Duke goalie who had come out to try and get to the loose ball.

Ritz would add another score to make it 9-3 before the Blue Devils tacked on a pair of late scores from Peter Lamade and Dan Flannery for the 9-5 final.

Game Notes:

- With today's 9-5 win Maryland is 53-14 all-time vs. Duke.
- The Terps are now 4-5 vs. Duke in the ACC Tournament.
- Maryland is now 3-5 all-time in the ACC Finals.
- The Terps defense held Duke, the nation's highest scoring team, without a goal for 40:15, the longest scoring shutout of the season for the Maryland defense.
- Joe Walters' extended his point scoring streak to 29 games with his 22nd career four-plus-point game.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak to 13 games with two assists.
- When Bill McGlone and Walters score goals in the same game the Terps are now 21-8.
- The attendance of 5,681 sets the ACC Tournament record.

GAME 14

PENN..... 6
NO. 6 MARYLAND 21

May 7, 2005
Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - The sixth-ranked Maryland men's lacrosse team scored early and often en route to a 21-6 victory over the Penn Quakers Saturday evening at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

All-American midfielder Bill McGlone got the Terps on the board less than three minutes into the game, scoring on a bounce shot the skipped past Denis Cole for a 1-0 Maryland lead. Senior Dave Matz, who started his fifth game of the season, upped the lead to 2-0 a minute later with a laser-like shot into the upper left corner of the Penn net.

The Healy brothers then scored back-to-back goals to give Maryland a 4-0 lead in the first quarter. Brendan Healy scored at the 7:01 mark when his shot trickled into the goal despite Cole getting a piece of the ball. Ian Healy then scored at 5:43 when All-American Joe Walters drew the attention of the Quaker defense and fed Healy for a wide-open shot just outside the crease.

The Quakers got on the board just 11 seconds later with the final score of the quarter when Patrick Rogers found Zandy Reich who scored his ninth goal of the season to cut the lead to 4-1.

Maryland came out firing again at the start of the second quarter. Walters scored his team-leading 28th goal of the season off an assist from senior midfielder Andrew Schwartzman. Junior Xander Ritz scored just 10 seconds after Walters' goal for a 6-1 Terrapin lead.

Penn answered back a minute and a half later when Luke Dixson scored, but Maryland kept up the offensive pressure. Freshman attackman Max Ritz scored for the fourth straight game at the 11:19 mark for a 7-2 Terps lead. Freshman midfielder Will Dalton then scored his second goal of the season to make the score 8-2 off a pass from fellow freshman Drew Evans, who picked up his first collegiate assist, at the 10:50 mark.

The game remained 8-2 until the 7:17 mark when Brendan Healy raced through the left side of the Quaker defense and fired a shot past Cole for a 9-2 Terrapin lead. McGlone then scored his second of the game on an unassisted goal to push the lead to 10-2.

Penn answered back at 2:35 of the second quarter when Greg Voight threaded a pass from the lower right, through the crease to a wide open Brian Amen, who laced a high shot past Maryland goalie Harry Alford.

That score would not hold long as Walters found junior midfielder Ryan Lang open in front of the Penn net and Lang beat Cole for his first goal of the season and an 11-3 Maryland advantage.

Penn started the third quarter by forcing a Maryland turnover, which Quaker midfielder Alan Eberstein converted into a Penn goal at 13:27. The Terps came right back with a couple of possessions that lead to the first-career goal for freshman Andrew Urquhart and a 12-4 Maryland advantage.

Sophomore midfielder Jay Feeley became the tenth different Terrapin to score a goal when he took a pass from Xander Ritz and beat Quaker goalie Greg Klossner for a 13-4 Maryland lead, which is how the third quarter would end.

The fourth quarter started much like the third. Klossner made the save on a Dalton shot, which started a Penn fast break. P.J. Gilbert worked a flawless give-and-go with David Andrzejewski and beat Terp goalie Teddy Murphy for the goal. Andrzejewski would add a goal of his own at the 11:50 mark to cut the lead to 13-6.

Maryland answered Penn's consecutive goals with two of its own when Schwartzman and sophomore midfielder Chris Feifs scored back-to-back goals 25 seconds apart to extend Maryland's lead to 15-6. For Feifs it was the first goal of his college career.

Maryland then reeled off seven straight goals off scores from Feifs, Brent Hargest, Matt Aksionoff, Feeley, another from Hargest and the first of the season from Patrick Howell for a 21-6 Maryland victory. For Aksionoff, who has struggled through several injuries during his four seasons in College Park, it was the first goal of his career.

Game Notes:

- With today's 21-6 win, Maryland is 6-0 all-time vs. Penn.
- Ten different Terps scored goals. Against Georgetown in the season opener 11 different Terps scored goals.
- Four Terps (Matt Aksionoff, Jay Feeley, Chris Feifs, Andrew Urquhart) scored the first goals of their collegiate careers in today's game.
- The 21 goals scored were the most by Maryland since a 21-7 win over Navy in College Park in 1998. It is the first time the Terps have scored 20 or more goals on the road since a 20-12 win at Cornell in 1995.
- Joe Walters' assist of Ian Healy's first-quarter goal extended his point scoring streak to 30 games.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak to 14 games with his second-quarter goal.
- Xander and Max Ritz each scored a goal, marking the fourth consecutive game they have scored points in the same game at Maryland.
- Brendan and Ian Healy scored in the same game for the ninth time in their careers.
- When McGlone and Walters score goals in the same game the Terps are now 22-8.

GAME 15
NCAA FIRST ROUND

NO. 4 MARYLAND 14
NO. 11 PENN STATE 10

May 14, 2005
Byrd Stadium

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The No. 3 seed Maryland Terrapins got four points each from All-American Joe Walters and Xander Ritz and rallied from a 6-5 halftime deficit to defeat Penn State, 14-10, at Byrd Stadium Saturday night and advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament.

The Terps dominated the opening quarter, scoring four straight goals from Andrew Schwartzman, Bill McGlone, Mike Hartofilis and Ian Healy. But the Nittany Lions roared back in the second quarter with five goals of their own to take a 6-5 lead into the break.

Maryland responded by dominating the third quarter, scoring seven times and limiting the Penn State offense to just two goals. Xander Ritz scored a man-up goal at 12:58 to tie the game at the 12:58 mark, but PSU's Patrick Heim scored an unassisted goal a little more than a minute later to give Penn State the lead back at 7-6.

Xander Ritz answered right back for the Terps at the 10:09 mark and tied the game at 7-7. Walters then gave Maryland an 8-7 advantage at 6:57 on a brilliant assist from Schwartzman. The Nittany Lions tied the game again, the fourth time the score was tied, on a goal by Gil Pearsall at 5:55.

The Maryland offense, which was sparked in the third quarter by face-off specialist David Tamberrino who won 7-9 draws in the quarter, started to exert control of the game. Beginning at the 3:38 mark, the Terps went on another 4-0 run with four different goal scorers. Midfielder Ryan Lang scored his second goal of the season to begin the run at 3:38. All-American midfielder Brendan Healy followed with his first of the game just 31 seconds later. McGlone scored his second of the game at 1:24 and Xander Ritz capped off the run with his third goal of the quarter to give Maryland a 12-8 lead going into the fourth.

Penn State started the fourth quarter with a three-minute non-releasable penalty, but the Nittany Lion defense responded to the challenge, holding the Terps scoreless for the duration of the penalty. Penn State tried to rally off a goal by Will Jones at the 10:59 mark, but Maryland fired back with back-to-back goals by Walters for a 14-9 lead to seal the game.

Nittany Lion midfielder Mike Jacober, who has been the cornerstone of this Nittany Lion team since his parents and brother were killed in a March 26 plane crash, capped off his season with Penn State's final goal with 25 seconds left in the game.

The game was delayed for more than two and a half hours due to a thunder storm.

Game Notes:

- With today's 14-10 win Maryland is 30-0 all-time vs. Penn State.
- With the win over Penn State, the Terps are now 36-25 in NCAA Tournament play, including an 8-2 record in first-round games.
- With three goals and an assist Joe Walters extended his point scoring streak to 31 games.
- Xander Ritz tied his career-long point scoring streak at 15 games with three goals and an assist.
- For Walters it was his 23rd career hat trick, while Xander Ritz now has five career hat tricks.
- Brendan and Ian Healy scored in the same game for the tenth time in their careers.
- When McGlone and Walters score goals in the same game the Terps are now 23-8.

ANDREW SCHWARTZMAN'S GAME-WINNER VS. GEORGETOWN SENT THE TERPS TO THE NCAA FINAL FOUR

GAME 16
NCAA QUARTERFINALS
NO. 4 MARYLAND 9
NO. 8 GEORGETOWN. . 8 (OT)

May 22, 2005
Princeton Stadium

PRINCETON, N.J. - The No. 3 seed University of Maryland men's lacrosse team is going back to the NCAA Final Four after senior midfielder Andrew Schwartzman scored the game-winning goal to defeat Georgetown, 9-8, in overtime at Princeton Stadium Sunday afternoon.

The Terps looked to have iced the game with 1:33 left in the fourth quarter, when Bill McGlone scored to give Maryland a 9-7 lead, but the goal was disallowed when McGlone's stick was challenged and ruled to have an illegal pocket.

With the score changed back to 8-7 and an unreleasable three-minute man advantage, Georgetown seized the opportunity less than 30 seconds later when Pete Cannon scored his second goal of the game to knot the game at 8-8 and send the game into overtime.

Georgetown, which dominated on face-offs, winning 16-of-21 draws, looked to have all of the momentum, but junior face-off specialist David Tamberrino gave the Terps a lift by winning the opening draw of the extra session. The teams traded possession and Georgetown forced another turnover to get the ball back, but Maryland junior midfielder Brendan Healy caused a turnover on a Hoya clear attempt and drew a 30 second pushing penalty to give the Terps control of the ball, setting up Schwartzman's overtime heroics.

The game started at a much easier pace. Both teams play disciplined lacrosse, but it was Georgetown that drew first blood when Scott Kahoe scored an unassisted goal at 11:26 for a 1-0 lead. Maryland tied the score just three minutes later when All-American Joe Walters fired a low-angle shot past Hoya goalie Rich D'Andrea.

Freshman attackman Max Ritz gave the Terps their first lead of the game at 3:51 of the first when he banged home a shot in the crease off an assist from Schwartzman, who dodged past his defender to find Ritz.

Sophomore goalie Harry Alford kept the Hoyas off the board for the remainder of the first period and finished with five saves in the quarter.

The intensity picked up in the second quarter, but Schwartzman picked up where he left off in the first, dodging past his defender and feeding a wide-open Xander Ritz, who scored his 15th goal of the season for a 3-1 Terp lead. Georgetown capitalized on a failed Maryland clear to pull to within a goal when Brendan Cannon found Trevor Casey at the top of the attack zone and Casey ripped a shot into the top left of the Terp net.

Walters gave Maryland a two-goal cushion early in the third quarter lacing a shot from the left side past D'Andrea for a 4-2 Terrapin lead. The two teams held each other in check until the 4:22 mark when Matt McBride trimmed the lead to one when he raced around the right side and scored on a shot to the top left corner.

Brendan Healy made the Hoyas pay for a careless offsides turnover at 2:12 when he scored his first goal of the game off a high shot into the top left corner. Cannon answered back for Georgetown with just 25 seconds left in the quarter when he curled around the crease and scored on an underhanded scoop shot.

The fourth quarter began with Walters scoring back-to-back goals, for a personal NCAA single game-best four goals, off of Hoya turnovers for a 7-4 Terrapin lead. Georgetown refused to go away quietly and scored twice in 20 seconds to cut the lead to 7-6.

Max Ritz scored his second goal of the game to give the Terps another two-goal lead, but Pete Cannon came back for the Hoyas with a high-hard shot that found the back of the Maryland net, setting up the dramatic final minutes of the quarter.

Defensively for the Terps, Harry Alford, who saved 25 shots when Georgetown and Maryland met on February 26, finished the game with 12 saves and a team-best seven groundballs. Sophomore defender Ray Megill tied his career-high with four groundballs.

GAME 16
NCAA QUARTERFINALS
NO. 2 DUKE 18
NO. 4 MARYLAND 9

May 28, 2005
Lincoln Financial Field

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. - The third-seeded University of Maryland's men's lacrosse team's run in the NCAA Tournament came to an end with a 18-9 semifinal loss to No. 2 seed Duke, Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia.

The Terps jumped out to an early 1-0 lead on Bill McGlone's 26th goal of the season, but the Blue Devils took the game over, scoring the next nine goals. Senior midfielder Andrew Schwartzman gave Maryland a boost heading into the half with two scored late in the second quarter, but Duke answered right back with a goal at the end of the quarter to push the lead to 10-3 at the break.

Junior All-American Joe Walters, who was held in check in the first half by Duke's Tony McDevitt, refused to let the Terps go away quietly, scoring three times in the third quarter for his 25th career hat trick. The Blue Devils managed to keep the pressure on despite the Terrapin run when freshman Zach Greer scored his third of four goals with 44 seconds left in the third to give Duke a 13-7 lead heading into the fourth.

The Blue Devils got two quick goals in the final period to extend their lead to 15-7. Maryland tried to grab some momentum at the 10:30 mark when Xander Ritz scored off an assist from McGlone. But Duke scored three goals in the next seven minutes and held Maryland without a goal for an 18-8 lead. Terrapin sophomore midfielder Thomas Alford scored his first goal of the season to finish the scoring.

The Maryland offense was stifled all day by Duke goalie Aaron Fenton, who finished the game with 15 saves. Leading the way for the Terps' defense was freshman Joe Cinosky and face-off wingman Charlie Wiggins, who each set career highs with four and five groundballs, respectively.

Game Notes:
- With today's 18-9 loss Maryland is 53-15 all-time vs. Duke.
- The loss moves Maryland's all-time record in NCAA play to 37-26.
- Maryland is now 9-9 in the NCAA semifinals.
- With three goals Joe Walters extended his point scoring streak to 33 games.
- When Walters and Bill McGlone score goals in the same game Maryland is now 23-9.
- For Walters it was his 25th career hat trick.
- Xander Ritz extended his point scoring streak scoring to 17 with his fourth quarter goal.

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

THE CAMPUS

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 32 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 79 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2004 enrollment was 25,140 undergraduate and 9,793 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 79 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 16 among the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 8 in information technology, No. 6 in faculty research and No. 7 in entrepreneurship.

In the undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report both the A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 17) and the College of Education (No. 22) were ranked among the top 25.

DR. C.D. MOTE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
EIGHTH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state-of-the-art sports complex; a high-tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR • 12TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 12th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 12 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 11 NCAA national championships and graduated its student-athletes at an enviable rate, as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored in December, 2004, by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics." She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all 11 of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $50 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which h administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic suppo services provided for student-athletes, with a enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate approximately 85 percent for student athletes Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports rankir in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raisir efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a resu private gifts to athletics have increased over 35 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues hav increased by over 300 percent during her tenure a Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues an facilities for the department's 27 teams. Th Comcast Center for men's and women's basketba and other sports that use the facility is a prim example of the dramatic upgrade of athleti facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strateg with management, marketing and fund-raisin applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every are of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Marylan athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & Worl Report as one of the Top 20 athletic program in the nation (for overall quality and competitiv excellence).
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlanti Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gar Williams, the men's basketball team has appeared in 11 of the last 12 NCAA Tournaments, one of only six schools to do so.
- Women's basketball also won its way to the NCA Tournament in 2004 and 2005, advancing to the second round.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coas Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004.

Additionally, Maryland is one of only six universities to win a National Championship in both basketbal and football (UCLA, Michigan, Michigan State Syracuse, Ohio State and Maryland).

IN DECEMBER OF 2004, DEBORAH A. YOW WAS NAMED ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS BY STREET & SMITH'S SPORTS BUSINESS JOURNAL.

Dr. Yow with former Terp student-athletes Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

FEAR THE TURTLE
2006 MARYLAND MEN'S LACROSSE

- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics in 2004, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Hired the Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Brenda Frese, as the new women's basketball coach. In her third season at the helm, her team drew more than 17,243 to a regular-season game and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in his second year.
- Men's Soccer won the NCAA national championship in 2005 and has made four consecutive appearances in the NCAA College Cup.
- Field Hockey won the NCAA national championship in 2005 and continues to be a perennial Final Four team.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2004-05, 18 Maryland teams competed in NCAA postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 11 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

SHAWN FLYNN
ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR/MEN'S LACROSSE SUPERVISOR

Shawn Flynn is in his fourth year as associate athletics director for internal operations. He is responsible for overseeing men's lacrosse, men's soccer, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's cross country, and women's water polo.

An active administrator at the conference and national levels, Flynn is currently the Vice Chair of the ACC men's soccer committee and the Chair of the ACC men's lacrosse committee. In 2005 he begins a four-year term on the NCAA men's lacrosse committee. In 2004 he served as Chair of the ACC men's and women's swimming and diving committee.

Flynn came to Maryland in 1988 as a graduate assistant for Intramurals and Sports Clubs with Campus Recreation Services. In 1990 he was hired as the Campus Recreation Coordinator for Facilities and Sports Clubs. In that role he administered a 25-club Sport Club Program in addition to establishing a First-Aid/CPR program. In 1994 his responsibilities expanded when he was promoted to assistant director for facilities and sports clubs.

Two years later Flynn was promoted to associate director for facilities. He played an integral role in the development, opening and operation of two major facility initiatives, the Campus Recreation Center and Ritchie Coliseum. Flynn served as the department liaison with various campus departments and worked with university committees and working groups. Flynn was the event director for the 1999 and 2000 FINA United States Swimming World Cup.

In addition to his work at Campus Recreation Services, Flynn served as the site director for the Nationals Futures Tournament/Super Camp for the United States Field Hockey Association since 1996. He was also a member of the 2000 U.S. Swimming Olympic Trials event team and has assisted the Washington Regional 2012 Coalition.

Flynn earned his bachelor of arts degree in business/economics from the University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown in 1988. He went on to earn a master's in kinesiology with a concentration in sport management from the University of Maryland in 1992.

Flynn and his wife Debbie have two children, Shane and Matthew.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by assistant athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Dena Freeman-Patton (right) works with the men's lacrosse team.

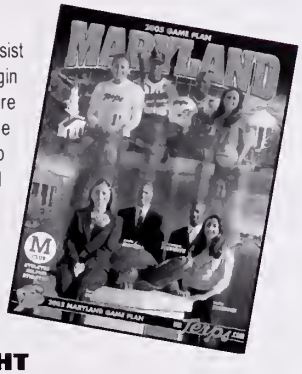
The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of ILP programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, three learning specialist, and a graduate assistant; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.



CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

"With the Crankshaft, you feel more ball and less stick. It's like holding the ball in the palm of your hand...and that's what you want for more control and quicker shots."

- Gary Gait

"It feels so comfortable in your hands and you don't need an extreme windup to crank a harder shot."

- Tom Marechek

"Players that use this stick are going to have a real advantage. It's going to make life a lot tougher for goalies."

- Jim Moss

The Kannon and the Crankshaft have the lacrosse world talking. That's because this stick feels different from the moment you pick it up. The 10-degree canted head and handle create a complete stick that feels lighter, face balances faster and sets up a quicker release. When you're cradling, passing or cranking a shot, you really feel the ball, so you can move it around the field faster than ever before.

For years the best players in the world have been trying to engineer a stick that can do all this. The players at STX have actually made it work.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

THE TRADITION

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 53rd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 94 national champion-ships, including 49 in women's competition and 45 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 119 times in men's competition and 61 times in women's action.

Since the inception of women's basketball in the ACC in 1977, a tradition of excellence has been established.

Over the years, ACC women's basketball teams have gained global recognition through their television exposure. The 2005-06 schedule features 40 televised games, including 11 national telecasts (six games on Fox Sports Net and affiliates and five on espn2). In addition, 29 match-ups will be featured on the league's regional sports network which includes Comcast SportsNet, Fox Sports Net South and Sun Sports. In all, the ACC will make 75 television appearances this season.

The league's women's basketball programs rank among the best in the country in terms of the NCAA Tournament, having made 103 appearances and won 137 games in the last 28 years, 11 of them as a number one seed. The league boasts such national accomplishments as sending at least one team to the "Sweet 16" for 17 consecutive years. The conference has also made ten trips to the Final Four in the last 24 years with two teams finishing second and North Carolina capturing the National Championship in 1994.

Since 1989, the ACC has placed nine players on the All-Final Four team, including Staley and Smith, who were dubbed Most Outstanding Players. In all, 50 ACC players have been named to NCAA Tournament All-Region teams, with eight Most Outstanding Player recognitions.

Three players have garnered national player of the year accolades while competing under the ACC banner. Virginia's Dawn Staley was a back-to-back selection in 1991 and 1992, while North Carolina's Charlotte Smith received the ESPY award in 1995. Duke's Alana Beard was recognized with national player of the year honors in both 2003 and 2004.

Five league coaches have combined to earn 11 national coach of the year awards. Duke's Gail Goestenkors, North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell, Virginia's Debbie Ryan, Maryland's Chris Weller and NC State's Kay Yow have all garnered national recognition.

Seven ACC representatives, including coaches and student-athletes, have participated in the Olympics. NC State's Kay Yow, assisted by Sylvia Hatchell of North Carolina, headed up the 1988 gold medal-winning Olympic team. Maryland's Vicky Bullett was a member of both the 1988 and 1992 Olympic teams. Three-time Olympian and Virginia graduate, Dawn Staley struck gold in Athens as a member of the 2004 Olympic squad. Duke's Gail Goestenkors served as an assistant coach on the gold-medal winning team in Athens.

Since the inaugural season of the Women's National Basketball Association in 1997, the ACC has been a recognizable presence in the league. Forty-three former ACC stars have played on the hardwood in the WNBA, while five former players have worked the sidelines as coaches.

The ACC also stands at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics in terms of the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. Since 1983, 381 women's basketball players have received ACC Academic Honor Roll recognition. The 2003-04 academic year included 39 selections. In addition, ACC women's basketball players have earned first-team Academic All-America honors six times, including Virginia's Val Ackerman in 1981, the former President of the WNBA. In 1997, NC State's Jennifer Howard was tabbed GTE CoSIDA Academic Player of the Year after posting a 4.0 grade point average throughout her career. Thirteen players have earned ACC postgraduate scholarships, while three others were named NCAA Postgraduate Scholars.

2004-05 IN REVIEW

The 2004-05 academic year concluded with the league pocketing three more national team titles and seven individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 51 national team titles over the last 15 years.

The ACC's 2004-05 national champions were Wake Forest in field hockey, North Carolina in men's basketball and Duke in women's golf. In addition, a total of 181 student-athletes from the ACC earned first, second or third-team All-America honors this past year.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2005-06 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977 with the first championship meet being held in tennis at Wake Forest University.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA GUIDELINES

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Byrd Stadium may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Patrick Fischer in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-7062. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.

Services: The Media Relations Office will provide complete statistics at the conclusion of every home game. Programs containing rosters and event notes on each team will be provided for the working media.

Press Box: The press box is located on the south side of Byrd Stadium in Tyser Tower. Access to Level 3 (print) and Level 4 (radio, television booths) is via elevators.

Fax Machine: The Media Relations Office has one facsimile machine, located in Room 2725 of Comcast Center, which is available upon request. The fax number is (301) 314-9094.

Telephones: A limited number of telephones are available in the Tyser Tower Press Box (calling card required). Any additional telephone requests should be directed to Josh Kaplan, Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-9729. List Patrick Fischer as the contact person for all installations.

Terps on the Web: For up-to-date game stories, statistics, schedules and results, and other Maryland athletic department information, please locate www.umterps.com on the Internet.
